DEMAND IMPARTIAL INQUIRY INTO GHASTLY AFFAIR

B.P.C.C. Call For Voluntary Hartial To Protest Against Police Violence

BOMBAY, Jan. 23. (A.P.I.): An impartial enquiry into today's police firing has been demanded by Messrs. Nagindas T. Master, President and S. K. Patil, Secretary, of the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee. In a joint statement they say that at least ten persons have been killed and over two hundred wounded as a result of police firing today.

The following is the text of their joint statement:—

"We have just returned after visiting several hospitals where dead and wounded have been admitted. What we have seen with our own eyes in hospitals and in the streets of Bombay, have simply taken our breath away. It is a tragedy of first magnitude that Bombay Police having all along had a reputation, should have resorted to such a hideous orgy of violence resulting in ten persons being killed and more than 200 wounded. This is the darkest spot in the fair name of the city. It is impossible just now to comment on this ghastly affair. The least the Bombay public must demand is an independent and impartial inquiry into today's tragic happenings. We earnestly appeal to the citizens of Bombay to observe as much peace and restraint as they can. As a protest against the firing, we advise voluntary cessation of business tomorrow (Thursday)."

WANTON BEATINGS!

BOMBAY, Wednesday (A.P.A.)—Back at his home shortly before midnight, after a long tour with Dhillon through the troubled areas, Mr. Desai said in a telephone conversation with the Associated Press of America:

"I saw wanton beatings. Some were beaten in front of my own eyes."

He said it should be looked upon as a smaller part of a much larger thing.

"Let them have their last fling," he said in a bitter reference to the Government.

There was no sign of any communal character in the demonstrations. For the most part Muslims did not take any part in the celebration or procession and equally they avoided any clash with the demonstrators. Nevertheless, police sent large reinforcements into the areas where Hindu and Muslim sections of the city crowd together.

Police Use Tear-Gas, Lathi And Bullets

11 DEAD: 216 DETAINED IN HOSPITALS

Procession Halted: Outburst Of Mob Violence

BOMBAY, Wednesday. A procession organised by the "Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Celebrations Committee", peacefully going along Sandhurst Road towards Bhendy Bazar was halted by the police near Prarthana Samaj, this morning, thereby setting off a series of troubles (on Sandhurst Road, between Prarthana Samaj and Round Temple). The trouble which started in the morning continued till late in the night. Several rounds of fire, expending nearly 236 bullets, were opened by the police. Eleven persons died. Sixty-eight arrests were made till midnight.

The total number of injured was about 500, out of whom 109 were casualties caused by bullet-wounds. 216 persons were admitted in the various hospitals for treatment. The condition of over 50 is reported to be critical.

Seventy-five tear-gas tubes were used in the course of the day. Mr. Abdulla Jafferbhoy and Mr. G. G. Mehta were put under arrest. As both of them were injured, they were taken to the hospital. Mr. Abdulla was subsequently removed to the Police lock-up.

Traffic in the disturbed area was completely paralysed. In the evening, wooden boards were laid on train-tracks on Sandhurst Road between Prarthana Samaj and Colaba, and on the nearly 50 textile mills were not working on the day. All the Municipal Schools remained closed. Students in various educational institutions abstained from attending classes.

The meeting at Chowpatty organised by the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee, however, passed off peacefully, although there was a large crowd, estimated at over 15,000. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Bhulabhai Desai and Lt. L. Gurubaksh Singh Dhillon who having flown from Karachi to Bombay reached the meeting forty minutes after its commencement.

Persistent efforts of processionists to go along banned routes along Sandhurst Road from Prarthana Samaj to Bhendy Bazar resulted in the Police opening several rounds of fire, frequent use of tear-gas and repeated resort to lathi charges, to-day.

The junction of Sandhurst Road, Duncan Road and Falkland Road was the centre of disturbance in the afternoon. The roads and lanes in this locality were strewn with bricks, pieces of splintered glass and other missiles.

The exact number of injured as a result of disturbance at Prarthana Samaj in the morning and near Round Temple in the afternoon was not available, as some of the people

LATHI CHARGE ON STUDENTS

LAHORE, Jan. 23. (U.P.I.): The police resorted to a lathi charge on the students of the D. A. V. Middle School this morning resulting in injuries to fifteen-five seriously. Among the injured included one journalist.

It is stated that the students of the school gathered outside the school premises demanding the institution to be closed in celebration of Netaji's birthday. They first made unsuccessful attempt to persuade the students to disperse. Some bricks were thrown from among the students whereupon the police were ordered to make a lathi charge with the above result.

The injured students are mostly of age ranging between 14 and 15 years.

BRITISH DELEGATION MEETS MAHATMA

MADRAS, January 23 (A. P. I.)—The meeting between Mahatma Gandhi and members of the British Parliamentary Delegation commenced at 7.30 p.m. this evening at the temporary residence of Mahatma Gandhi at the Hindustani Nagar.

Prof. Richards, Leader of the Delegation, accompanied by Mrs. Nichol, Major Wyatt and Mr. Hopkin Morris arrived at Hindustani Nagar at 7.20 p.m. They were received by Mr. Pyarelal and authorities of the Hindi Prachar Sabha at the gate. They spent a few minutes going round the premises of the Hindi Prachar Sabha and entered Mahatma Gandhi's residence at 7.25 p.m.

Mr. Reginald Sorensen followed them a minute later and other members of the delegation arrived precisely at 7.30 p.m. They were all ushered into the spacious hall where they are holding discussions with Mahatma Gandhi.

The meeting between the members of the British Parliamentary delegation and Mahatma Gandhi concluded at 9 tonight.

They will meet again at 17.30 tomorrow evening. Mr. Pyarelal, Gandhi's Secretary, who received the members of the delegation took them to Mahatma Gandhi and returned. Nobody was present at the meeting place except Mahatma Gandhi and the ten members of Parliament.

A large number of pressmen and press photographers waited outside at the entrance to Gandhi's residence. After ninety minutes talks Prof. Richards was first to come out followed by others. Mr. Reginald Sorensen and Major Wyatt stayed on for a few minutes more and came last.

The members looked jubilant as they emerged out of the hall. Prof. Richards, leader of the delegation, told the A.P.I. special representative that they had a very interesting talk with a very honest straightforward man. "We are meeting him again tomorrow evening," He added that the talks covered a wide field but he preferred not to enter into the details of their discussion. Mrs. Nichol said: "We had a very friendly, free and frank discussion. We found him quite healthy for his age."

Maj. Wyatt who meets Mahatma Gandhi for the first time said: "It is a great privilege to be talking to him such a long time."

Mr. Sorensen said that he conveyed to Mahatma Gandhi a number of messages and greetings from various friends in England.

Mr. Sorensen and Maj. Wyatt are meeting Mahatma Gandhi again tomorrow morning while all the members of the delegation will meet him together tomorrow evening at 7.30 for a second time.

TEAR-GAS ATTACK

For half an hour, the Police waited and the processionists would not budge. Then another procession of screaming tots came along Vithalbhai Patel Road. The Police then initiated their intention to use tear-gas. The children were immediately removed to safety. Those who sat on the road prepared themselves for a second time.

Bombay's Great Reception To Lt. Dhillon

SEVERE condemnation of the lathi charges, the tear-gas attacks and the shooting indulged in by the police earlier in the day coupled with mandatory injunctions to the people to observe the strictest discipline and not be trapped into any kind of exhibition of violence were made by Mr. Bhulabhai Desai and Lt. Gurubaksh Singh Dhillon, addressing a mammoth public meeting at Chowpatty on Wednesday evening.

Bombay Clashes In Commons

LONDON, Jan. 23. (Reuters): Clashes between police and demonstrators in Bombay to-day on the occasion of celebrations of birthday of Subhas Chandra Bose are given prominence in London evening newspapers and the story is the main front page lead in London "Evening Star".

Swift action is to be taken by India League to raise the matter in Parliament. Mr. V. K. Krishna Menon, Secretary of the India League told Reuters to-day: "We are making every endeavour to raise the matter in the House of Commons to-morrow. All Indians condemn police action in firing on demonstrators but we shall attempt to find out the official attitude by getting the matter brought up in Parliament."

Mr. Chowdhury Akbar Khan, President of the Indian Workers' Association of Britain said: "To read of 130 people being injured in Bombay as the result of celebrating the birthday of one of their patriots at a time when statesmen of the world are gathered here in London to ensure peace of the world is a mockery of what they are trying to accomplish. Whatever the English may think of Subhas Chandra Bose, Indian people regard him as a patriot and it is a tragedy to read of the way the police broke up their demonstration."

DEMOMETISATION CASE APPEAL

Fixed For Thursday

(Before the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Mr. Justice Lokur)
Joseph Michael D'Souza ... Appellant
(Original Petitioner).

The Reserve Bank of India ... Respondents.

An application was made to their Lordships on Wednesday afternoon for an order dispensing with the printing of an Appeal paper. Book and being an entry bearing so that the appellant might not lose his remedy of the 26th of this month, in the appeal filed against the decision given by Mr. Justice Kania on Tuesday in the Demonetisation case. Their Lordships fixed the hearing of the appeal on Thursday 24th January.

The main grounds of appeal were that the trial Judge Mr. Justice Kania had erred in construing Section 39 of the Reserve Bank of India Act 1934 and clause 6 of the Demonetisation Ordinance 3 of 1946 so that the word "exchange" included a case of a promise under a bank note to receive payment of the amount in discharge of the Bank's liability to perform the promise, and in holding that the Ordinance governed the obligation to discharge and satisfy the promise to pay contained in the notes.

Mr. K. M. Munshi instructed by Messrs. M. B. Chothia and Co. appeared for the appellant-petitioner. Sir Jamshedji Kanja instructed by Messrs. Crawford Bayley and Co. appeared for the respondent-bank.

Labour Party's "No" To Communists

LONDON, Jan. 23. (Reuters): The National Executive of the Labour Party in London today decided to recommend the Annual Conference of the Party at Whit-sun not to accept the affiliation of the Communist Party.

The Executive considered a letter from Mr. Harry Pollitt asking that the application for affiliation should be brought before the Annual Conference and stating that the Communist Party is prepared to accept all obligations under the Constitution, Rules and Standing Orders of the Labour Party.

Mr. Desai who was in reminiscent mood, after stating how in the course of the I.N.A. trial the three accused, Shah Nawaz, Premkumar Sehgal and Gurubaksh Dhillon had endeavored themselves to him and had virtually become his sons, introduced Dhillon as a poet. "Not a full poet maybe, but some kind of a tattered, torn poet," he said. He recited the two last lines of a poem which he said, Dhillon had composed during one of their interviews in Delhi. The lines, somewhat crudely translated, meant that they would march to Delhi whatever difficulties were in the way; and they would write history with their blood. Lt. Dhillon, however, took the cue from Mr. Desai to show that he was a full poet and no torn-tattered one, by reciting a stirring poem which he had composed. He said that when he recited the poem before Netaji, it brought tears into Netaji's eyes.

Gandhian Plan For Free India: Agarwal Explains Constitution In Book

WARDHAGANJ, Jan. 22 (A.P.I.)—The Gandhian conception of the constitution of the future state of Free India is outlined by Principal S. N. Agarwal, author of the "Gandhian Plan" of India's economic development, in a brochure entitled "Gandhian Constitution for Free India", of which a summary is released to the press today. Principal Agarwal has drawn up the constitution in consultation with Mahatma Gandhi.

In the course of his foreword, Mahatma Gandhi observes: "The framework of this constitution is based on the Gandhian study of the village. There is nothing in it which has jarred on me as inconsistent with what I would like to stand. He was good enough to make such alterations as I thought were necessary."

The Gandhian constitution consists of two parts. The first part lays down the basic principles and ideals of good and just society. It is emphasised that if democracy is to survive, it must go the Gandhian way which upholds the ideal of more or less self-sufficient and self-governing rural republics, enjoying maximum local autonomy. The resuscitation of village communities or panchayats and building up of the administrative systems from the bottom will usher in true democracy and economic equality.

Non-violence and decentralisation are the key notes of the Gandhian Constitution. Decentralised democracy is strongly advocated instead of being medieval, will present to the world a model constitution for the new order.

In the second part of the brochure, Principal Agarwal deals with the different aspects of the future constitution for Swaraj from the Gandhian stand point. While enumerating the fundamental rights, special stress is laid on the fullest enjoyment of the so-called minorities and the backward classes, spheres of religion, culture, language, script and social customs.

UNIVERSAL ADULT FRANCHISE. According to the Gandhian constitution, the village should be a basic unit of administration in Free India. Every village shall elect on the basis of universal adult franchise a Panchayat, which will have very wide and comprehensive functions relating to education, protection, recreation, agriculture, industries, trade, commerce, sanitation, medical relief, justice, finance and taxation, to co-ordinate the social, economic, political and cultural activities of the villages there shall be taluka and district panchayats whose functions will be mostly advisory. Presidents of the district panchayats will form the provincial panchayat which shall be unicameral.

The present provincial boundaries will have to be rerun on linguistic basis. There will usually be complete separation of functions between the legislature and the executive. The provincial panchayats shall appoint Ministers who will not be members of the panchayat. The Ministers will represent the best talent of the province irrespective of the party or communal considerations. Presidents of the provincial panchayats shall be elected by the panchayats which shall be unicameral legislature of Free India.

The Indian states, joining the All-India Federation or the Panchayat shall share the right to send to the panchayat, the elected representatives but not the nominated puppets of the princes.

FUNCTIONS OF CENTRE. Consistent with the basic principle of maximum decentralisation of political and economic power, the centre shall exercise only the following functions:

(1) defence, (2) economic co-ordination, (3) management of key industries, (4) regulation of currency, customs and international trade, (5) foreign policy.

The residuary powers shall vest in the federating units. The judicial system will have to be radically overhauled by granting to the village panchayats extensive civil and criminal powers. Appeals will be heard by the District and the High Courts only in very special cases. The Supreme Court of India will be the highest and the final legal authority.

DEFENCE FORCE. Although Gandhiji is a firm believer in non-violence, he is practical enough to concede that free India may require a defence force. But he conceives of defence mainly in the nature of a national organisation of guardians which will be very different from the present police force.

The guardians shall be reformers and believers in non-violence. The All-India Panchayat will have complete control over the defence force.

Dealing with the problem of minorities the author traces the history of separate electorates and describes Lord Minto as the father of Pakistan. The demand for Pakistan is thoroughly impractical, irrational and undesirable. The non-violent state of Gandhiji's conception will not be confronted with the problem of minorities at all because the essence of Gandhianism is tolerance and deep regard for one another's rights.

The division of India into two or more separate states will mean virtual national suicide. The right solution will be the so-called declaration of the fundamental rights for all citizens of Free India without any distinctions of caste, creed, sex, religion, colour and socio-economic status.

TAKE VOW TO TALK IN HINDUSTANI

Mahatma's Advice

MADRAS, Jan. 23 (U.P.I.)—"Prayer is one of the vital parts of man's life. Whether one is a Hindu, a Muslim, a Parsee or of any community, he must give prayer due importance in his life. One may live for some days without food, but we cannot go on without prayer," said Mahatma Gandhi addressing a mammoth gathering at the evening prayer held in the open ground behind Hindi Prachar Sabha Bhawan.

Gandhiji then told the gathering how he started Satyagraha in the Tamilnad. Gandhiji made reference to his associations with Rajaji since his earlier days at the instance of late Kasturi Ranga Aiyangar, founder of the "Hindu" who invited Mahatma to start Satyagraha.

Continuing he said: "I would like to tell you that Rajagopalachari, as I understood him in those days, is still the same Rajagopalachari today."

Gandhiji made a pertinent reference to his present visit to Madras, namely, the Silver Jubilee Celebration of the Hindi Prachar Sabha, and said: "I must take a vow from you all to talk in Hindustani. It is your duty to learn Hindustani and if I can take a vow from you then I should think I have come to Madras for a greater work even than the work of Satyagraha."

Appealing for the Harijan Fund, Mahatma said: "People must know that untouchability is the greatest sin in Hindu Dharma." Concluding Gandhiji thanked the audience for keeping an unbroken silence.

Collections were made for the Harijan Fund after the meeting.

GANDHIJI LEARNS TAMIL

MADRAS, Jan. 22 (U.P.I.)—"You must know that nothing is difficult in this world. A man can do anything and everything through sincere efforts. So you must try to learn Tamil," said Gandhiji last evening to the special representative of the U.P.I. when asked whether he was learning Tamil.

At prayer time last evening a peasant presented two dhoties and some hanks of yarn to Gandhiji.

ELECTIONS IN INDIA AND GREECE

U. S. Commentator Attacks Br. Policy

LONDON, January 23 (U.P.I.)—Undemocratic character of the elections to be held in India and Greece under British auspices is bitterly attacked by the well-known American radio commentator, Lisa Serge, who says: "None of these places is free. The ballot in Britain, India and Greece is based on the basis of literacy. Only eleven per cent are literate. The British regulation says that an Indian can only vote for a man of his own religion. There are tremendous tax qualifications. Out of 800 million only 23 million are at most have to vote."

Referring to Greece she says: "Powerful British groups want elections to be held in the hope of restoring the monarchy. The list of voters is already being falsified. By the time American observers arrive damage will have been done."

Over 150 Killed In Delhi

Toll Of August Disturbances

NEW DELHI, Jan. 23 (U.P.I.)—More than 150 persons were killed as a result of a dozen indiscriminate firing by the police and military during the August disturbances of 1945 in Delhi, states the Delhi Provincial Congress Committee in a report.

The report adds that the Government statistics that 44 were killed, is a deliberate under-estimate. The exact number of those injured in firing or lathi charge by police is not known. The report complains that dead bodies were secretly disposed of and the treatment of the hospital authorities with the injured persons was very rude.

It is estimated that more than 2,000 people were arrested and charged with various offences and detained.

Allies Support Vienna Ban On Hapsburgs

LONDON, Jan. 23 (Reuters).—Vienna Radio states that the Allied Control Council for Austria has reaffirmed its decision to give the Austrian Government support in enforcing law banning Hapsburgs (former Austrian Royal family) and in preventing their return.

without trial. Third degree methods were employed to extract information from them.

The report also complains inhuman treatment meted out to some political prisoners. Mrs. Asaf Ali and Jugal Kishore Khanna were declared absconders and their entire properties were attached. The report points out a number of instances in which people were fired on when inside their houses through windows. Unprovoked lathi charge by the police remained the order of the day for several weeks. Labourers and students were the worst sufferers.

Standing Committee Adjourns. The Standing Committee of the Municipal Corporation adjourned on Wednesday on account of Subhas Chandra Day Mr. I. S. Patel moved the resolution which was seconded by Mr. Soodendra Motariji and carried unanimously.

DIRECTOR OF AZAD HIND BANK RELEASED

LAHORE, Jan. 23 (U.P.I.)—Capt. Dinanath, Director of the Azad Hind Bank, who was brought by the military authorities as defence witness in the first I.N.A. trial was released today from the Delhi Red Fort according to advices received here. He is arriving here today and will stay at the residence of Mr. Justice Acharya, father of Mr. Prem Kumar Sehgal.

It may be recalled that a "habeas corpus" petition was moved in the Lahore High Court demanding his release and notice was served on the military authorities.

ADVENTURES OF UNARMED I.N.A. SOLDIER

LAHORE, Jan. 23 (U.P.I.)—The story how Mr. Kuppaswamy, an unarmed I.N.A. soldier, lost his left arm in the course of a scuffle with five Gurkha soldiers of the British Army was narrated before Capt. Shah Nawaz during the latter's inspection of the I.N.A. parade last evening at the I.N.A. camp.

Mr. Kuppaswamy who hails from Madras said, after their surrender at Rangoon he was one day being escorted to a prisoners camp by five Gurkha soldiers who on the way snatched the I.N.A. badge and Netaji's photo and trampled them. This was too much for him to bear and though unarmed he yet fought the armed escorts single-handed, and was bayoneted in his arm chest, and stomach. The bayonet pierced deep in his arm and in spite of medical treatment he lost his whole arm from the wound. Captain Shah Nawaz was visibly moved to hear this tragic story.

Journalists' Contribution To I.N.A. Relief Fund

CALCUTTA, Jan. 23 (U.P.I.)—A sum of Rs. 250, will be paid to Captain Shah Nawaz through the Indian Journalists' Association for payment towards the I.N.A. Relief Fund (Bengal). The said amount has been paid to the Journalists' Association by one of its journalist members out of the sale proceeds of his book on "Azad Hind Fouz."

Purse Of Rs. 1,050 For Jawahar

LAHORE, Jan. 23 (U.P.I.)—Two main objectives are still to be achieved. We shall have to win Swaraj and remove the curse of hunger," said Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru addressing a public meeting at the village of Satrodkhurd in the Hissar District, yesterday.

Pandit Nehru's southern Punjab election tour commenced yesterday. Moving in a car Pandit Nehru addressed a number of public meetings in rural areas. A purse of Rs. 1,050 was presented to Pandit Nehru for the I.N.A. Relief on behalf of the villagers of Satrodkhurd.

Everywhere Pandit Nehru received a great ovation from the people and he exhorted all to vote for the Congress and muster strong under the tri-colour.

American Principal Greets Students With "Jai Hind"

LUCKNOW, Jan. 22 (A.P.I.)—There is at least one head of a local institution who greets his students with "Jai Hind." He is Mr. H. A. Hanson, the American Principal of Lucknow Christian College. Not only that Mr. Hanson does not object to his students responding the roll call with the same slogan.

Interviewed by the "Associated Press of India," Mr. Hanson said, "Every one has his own interpretation of the slogan, 'Jai Hind.' What I understand by 'Jai Hind' is 'Victory to India.' There is no reason why I should not have every sympathy with Indian aspirations."

ANNOUNCEMENT

REPATRIATION OF INDIAN EVACUEES TO BURMA

Procedure For Registration

Indian evacuees desirous of returning to Burma are requested to note the following procedure regarding the registration and issue of Identity Certificates to them:—

Evacuees should present themselves to the Tehsildar or Sub-Divisional Magistrate or Circle Officer or any other Officer appointed by Provincial Governments for this purpose in the area in which they are resident, and apply, in the prescribed form, for an Identity Certificate. The application forms are available with the officer mentioned above and can be had free.

Evacuees, who are not in receipt of financial assistance, would be well advised to bring with them evidence of their status as an evacuee, such as a letter from a responsible officer, bearer of duly constituted evacuee or refugee organisation; or a letter from any person who might have held important official or non-official positions in Burma; or a letter from any respectable Burma evacuee well known in the area; or a certificate from the Central Refugee Officer of the Zone; or a certificate from the village headman; or any other document which will prove his evacuee status. One or more of these documents will be sufficient for the purpose.

The Magistrate after satisfying himself that the applicant is an evacuee will issue an Identity Certificate. Evacuees should get their Identity Certificates and wait for an 'embarkation notice' from the Protector of Emigrants concerned. These embarkation notices are not likely to issue before March or April, 1946.

An evacuee for the purpose of this scheme is any person who Issued by the Commonwealth Relations Department, Government of India.

was obliged to leave Burma as a result of the war and subsequent Japanese occupation of that country; and any person who was resident in Burma and had left that country prior to the declaration of hostilities and would have returned to Burma if it had not been for the war and the consequent Japanese occupation of that country.

All male adults above the age of 18 are to apply on a separate form and obtain separate Identity Certificates. Male dependents of evacuees below 18 and female dependents of whatever age are not required to apply and obtain separate Identity Certificates. All females, who are not attached to any adult males as dependents, should apply and obtain separate Identity Certificates. Any dependents who are to go with such non-dependent females, should be included in the application and the Identity Certificates of such females concerned.

If the evacuees are in a position to obtain small passport-size photographs, such photographs should be produced in duplicate for the purpose of affixing them in the Identity Certificate as well as the duplicate copy of the application form. It would be in the interest of evacuees to have such photographs, but if the evacuee is not in a position to bear the expense, photographs will not be insisted upon.

This scheme is applicable only to Indian evacuees. The Government of Burma will issue certificates to Burmans, Anglo-Burmans, Anglo-Indians, Indians in the service of the Government of Burma and the rest. Registration will commence on December 10, 1945, and will be completed by February 23, 1946.

Thus Peps search out and overcome infectious germs. They remove congestion in the bronchial tubes, cut and loosen choking phlegm and end the worst cough, cold or chill. Peps are wonderfully soothing for the throat and give you at least one head of a local institution who greets his students with "Jai Hind."

To procure the rich concentrated essence in Peps they are packed in glass bottles and sealed with wax. Every package contains a "correct" and full directions printed in leading languages.

Punters Fare Disastrously At Hospital Day Meeting

AMIR AHMAD RIDES THREE WINNERS FOR MAHOMMEDALI

By Our Racing Correspondent
WEDNESDAY, Jan. 23.
Favourites went down like pins to-day at Mahalaxmi when the programme for the Hospital day meeting was decided. The attendance was good though it was a working day. It was a boom day for Indian riders. They bagged as many as six events. The outstanding feature of the day was a profitable treble for Mahomedali Amir Ahmed combination. That polished Bangalore jockey rode judiciously on the winners, Mahabharat, Nirmal and Misty Island. The last named disposed of Star of Sirohi and Oliver in the main attraction, the Surgeon General's Cup. Brilliant horsemanship was exhibited also by Farukh Khade who piloted two winners. The other Indian to score in the day was Guman Singh. He scored on that unconsidered Intihar Al Shabab.

The Hospital day necessitated the removal of two of our jockeys to the hospital. In the last event, the first division of the K. E. M. Hospital Plate, soon after entering the straight, Whiteside and Magan Singh were thrown off their mounts, Spanish Suite and Maharaja respectively. Both riders have sustained injuries and Whiteside had the worst of it. The Maharaja of Gwalior had a lean day. The neglected Miss Irene alone in the card scored for him. Principally owner at lavishing 10 to 1 odds. The best fancied in this event, Spanish Suite, failed to figure in the frame but was a close fifth while Spanish Suite who was near in demand, returned to the unsaddling enclosure, riderless.

A solitary ticket, which was cashed on the first pool mount, returned Rs. 94,931 and I understand that several punters shared it.

The following are the results:—

CENTRAL ASSEMBLY CENSURES GOVT. AGAIN

ADJOURNMENT ON RELEASE OF DETENUS CARRIED

"IF JAIPRAKASH IS DANGEROUS WE ON THIS SIDE OF THE HOUSE ARE ALSO DANGEROUS," SAYS MASANI

NEW DELHI, Jan. 23. (A. P. I.): The Assembly passed without a division, Mr. Mohanlal Saxena's adjournment motion censuring Government on not releasing the detenues detained under Ordinance III of 1944.

DETENTION UNJUSTIFIED.

Mr. Mohanlal Saxena (Congress), moving his adjournment motion, "censure Government for not releasing the detenues detained under Ordinance III of 1944," said that during the last three years no subject had engaged the attention of the public more than the detention of such a large number of persons without trial. The speaker thought that if an impartial tribunal were to examine their cases, it would come to the conclusion that, in the case of most of the persons the detention was unjustified.

BACK TO THE HOUSE WITH DEFINITE MANDATE.

"We have not only come back to public life," said Mr. Saxena, "but we have come back to this House with a definite mandate on the very resolution August Resolution on which the Government of India had thought it necessary to detain us."

CRYING SHAME.

Mr. Sanyal (Congress) said that the Defence of India Act and Rules had been described as a "Lawless Law" by eminent jurists of the land and a standing reproach to the Statute Book. It was a crying shame on the Government that even after the war was over, the Defence of India Rules and Ordinance III were still in force.

HOME MEMBERS' APOLOGY.

The Home Member, Sir John Thorne, declined the mover's invitation to take any responsibility for persons detained under the Ordinance. He explained that there had been consultations between the Central Government and the Provincial Governments as to the policy under Ordinance III of 1944. "That consultation is necessary, it is of the first importance to the Central Government to have the advice of the Provincial Governments on all matters relating to public order, and there are cases when it is equally of use to Provincial Governments to be told by the Central Government what they propose to do in respect of the areas immediately under their control. That consultation took place at various stages and it took place immediately the war ended."

He agreed that the end of the war produced a new situation. That was recognised immediately at the Centre and the Province were consulted as to the effect that the new situation should have on the policy hitherto followed under Ordinance III. The policy agreed on between the Centre and the Province was to release persons detained under that Ordinance as quickly as was reasonably and safely possible. That policy had been followed in the succeeding months.

"I have made it clear that I do not take responsibility for the administration of Government's Province but I have figures from those Provinces which I will quote in support of the case that we have proceeded as quickly as was reasonably and safely to be expected with the release of detenues; (Prof. Ranga: Question).

NUMBER OF DETENUS. At the end of the 27th April 1945, the number of persons detained under Ordinance III in the Provinces was 6,816. That number had now fallen to 3,109 on Jan. 18. (Cries of Shame).

"MOSTLY HURS".

Members opposite might cry shame but he would explain that of these 3,109 by far the greater number, 2,506, were Hurs, detained by the Government of Sind. It was common knowledge that for years this faction in Sind had pursued a course of lawless and extreme violence, murder, dacoity, maltreatment of all kinds, finally the derailment of a passenger train.

Hurs, however, were not the business of the Central Government or of this House, he reiterated. "I myself shall not be party to any decision or vote of this House which amounts to a vote of censure on the Central Government. In August 1945, 22 persons were detained under their orders. Of these only three were in detention of area. In the Chief Commissioner's Provinces, there were 17 in August 1945 and only one now. For the whole of India, there were 14,800 detenues in June 1945, 6,855 in August, 1945 and 3,112 on January 18 this year. (Cries of Shame).

THEY MADE NO SECRET OF THEIR VIEWS.

The four persons detained under the Central Government's orders were Jaiprakash Narain, Ram Manohar Lohia, Sardar Sardul Singh Caveshier, and Krishna Nair.

During the last few days he himself had seen each of these four and had talked with them freely. He questioned them in particular on their attitude to violence as a political method and on their views on the present political situation. He received from them very interesting answers. They made no secret of their views and he had no reason to suppose they wanted to mislead him.

In the ordinary course the orders detaining them would come under review either in June or July, unless those orders were previously cancelled or expired. It was only a few days ago that he saw these gentlemen and the matter he was considering was whether there was any good reason to anticipate the dates on which the orders of detention would terminate.

Three of these persons were residents of areas which were not under the direct administration of the Government of India and it was right and proper that the Government of those areas should give their views on the release of these persons. He would make it clear, however, that the responsibility was that of the Government of India and that the Government of India would not take shelter under the Provincial Government any more than the Provincial Government would take shelter under the Government of India, and he would ask the House to give the Government of India and himself the benefit of the doubt in consideration which they were giving to the question.

Mr. Krishen Chandra Sharma (Congress) said there was no reason whatsoever why the persons detained at all and the sooner they were released the better it would be for all. He pleaded for their release in the name of humanity, law and justice.

SHIFTING BLAME WON'T DO.

As regards the Home Member's statement that the Government of India was not responsible for those detained by Provincial Governments, Mr. Siddiqui said: "The Local Government people say that they have to obey the masters in Delhi. This has happened not once or twice but a dozen times. I shall not be concerned of the fact that there is anything in the nature of Provincial Autonomy."

"INHUMANITIES" ON HURS.

The Home Member, Speaker continued, had unfortunately introduced Hurs in his arithmetic. Special tribunals had been ordered to pound the Hurs into atoms under a cruel arrangement, men, women and children were pounded by aeroplanes. Mr. Siddiqui said: "The Local Government people say that they have to obey the masters in Delhi. This has happened not once or twice but a dozen times. I shall not be concerned of the fact that there is anything in the nature of Provincial Autonomy."

The word Hur perhaps meant one who was free or a lover of freedom. If the Hurs behaved as they did, it was because the iron hand of the Government and its agents made life impossible for them. Mr. Siddiqui attributed the activities of the Hurs to economic causes and appealed to the Government to release every Indian at present kept in custody.

Mr. Siddiqui said that if a committee of the House went and talked to the Hurs, he was absolutely certain that all that was now being said against them would be proven to be utter nonsense.

"HANDS SOAKED IN BLOOD"

Mr. M. R. Masani (Congress) said, "The Home Member told the House that in the course of his friendly and frank discussion he questioned the four detenues as to their attitude to violence.

It strikes me that the claims of the Home Member to question anyone about violence are rather open to question. The members of the Treasury benches represent a system whose hands are literally soaked in blood. (Hear, hear).

Does it lie in their mouth to question anyone whether he believed in violence? Mahatma Gandhi and those who have preached and practised non-violence may have the right, but those whose whole career as a nation is rooted in force and violence certainly have no right to raise that question."

Mr. Masani considered it ironic that while in Britain there was a Socialist Government, in India anyone should be detained without trial who was trying to lead the country on the path of Socialism. Jaiprakash's picture of a Free India envisaged a democratic form of society.

"If Jaiprakash Narain is dangerous, I dare say we on this side of the House and every young man who feels for his country and resents the poverty and degradation in which the masses are living today, are also dangerous."

The Home Member had talked of the Hurs as if they were outside the pale of Indian humanity and had said that Hurs were not the business of the Government of India or of this House. As far as I am aware, Hurs are Indians and every Indian is our business, and I am sure the House will not accept any proposition which tends to separate from the main body of the nation a people who, if they are ruthless, are brave and have shown qualities of courage, resistance and determination, of which we are proud."

WHAT FUNJAB PREMIER SAID.

Sardar Mangal Singh (Akali Party) said that he had had personal talks with the Punjab Premier, who declared that he was not against the release of Sardul Singh Caveshier. In view of this statement of the Punjab Premier, he protested most strongly against the Home Member's statement that he was not able to anticipate the orders regarding the four detenues.

The Speaker urged that if Sardar Sardul Singh Caveshier was not to be released immediately, he should at least be transferred to a place where he would be given proper medical treatment, because he was suffering from a serious disease.

Sardar Mangal Singh said that Government deserved censure for the failure to release the four detenues of Indians and continuing to keep most of the leaders in jail indefinitely. It should be censured every day till the last man was out of jail.

Sardar Mangal Singh said that two young men belonging to the family of Mr. Sarat Chandra Bose had told harrowing tales of persecution and third degree methods used by the Punjab police in the Lahore Port. Was it not the duty of the Home Member to be asked, to see that his prisoners were given some standard of human living.

SARAT BOSE'S ATTACK.

Mr. Sarat Chandra Bose, Leader of the Opposition, said: "Whether it is the Defence of India Rules or the restriction and Detention Ordinance, it was made and continues to be in force for the perpetration of India's slavery. Which civilised Government in the world can possibly think of keeping in detention such patriots like Sardar Sardul Singh Caveshier, Satya Ranjan Bakshi and Jai Prakash Narain? If they have been guilty of crimes, they ought to have been put up before courts of law. It was said that the time the Ordinances were promulgated that they would be in force for the duration of the war and six months thereafter. The war has come and gone but the detentions continue and one does not know how long they will continue. The Government of India seem determined to fill the cup of bitterness to the full, let them do so, but I shall not let them do so. We know we are prepared for a single person like Sardar Sardul Singh Caveshier, Satya Ranjan Bakshi or Jai Prakash Narain is in jail, the place of every honest and patriotic son of India is in jail, the Government stands convicted of crime against human society, against law and against justice." (Hear, hear).

WHOSE PUBLIC SAFETY?

"I know the Government speaks of Law and Order. The Law and Order it speaks of is its Law and Order. I heard the Home Member say that the detenues will be released as soon as it is consistent with public safety to do so. The public safety he speaks of is not the safety of India but the safety of the Imperialist Government which is dominating over India. That is not public safety. If you take a plebiscite today, the verdict will be that the public safety of India demands that each and every person who is now in jail should be released. (Hear, hear).

of the Imperialist Government which is dominating over India. That is not public safety. If you take a plebiscite today, the verdict will be that the public safety of India demands that each and every person who is now in jail should be released. (Hear, hear).

"The Home Member says there is consultation between the Provinces and the Centre. I know what sort of consultation this is. It only affords some excuse either to the Central Government or the Provincial Government as the case may be.

"The Home Member in the course of his speech made the admission, possibly inadvertently, that people are detained for their views. I have read that when Italy was under Austrian domination, every young man who was silent and serious was considered to be dangerous and was locked up in prison. I have not the least doubt that the time will come when the Government of India will follow the Austrian model."

Mr. Sri Prakasa: I am not even serious and they detained me (Laughter).

Mr. Bose said that when he was in jail, Government thought that he was educated on wrong lines and to educate him on the right lines they withheld some of the books which had been sent to him by his people. (Renewed laughter).

Government, Mr. Bose continued, was determined to pursue the same relentless policy which it had pursued for so many years. Was it prepared to abandon naked Imperialism?

The motion was passed without a division and the House adjourned for the day.

Pledge To Struggle Till Last Breath

BOMBAY, Wednesday.

A solemn pledge to fight for India's independence till last breath was taken by a group of students, who collected at Madhav Baug this morning to attend the meeting convened in celebration of the 50th birthday of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose.

The meeting which was scheduled to start at 11-30 a. m. could not come off at that hour as a procession which had started from Chhatrapati to attend the meeting was stopped by the Police at the Prarthana Samaj.

On the receipt of the news regarding the Police firing at Prarthana Samaj, another procession, mostly of students started from Dhole Talao and arrived at Madhav Baug at about 1 p. m.

The meeting then began. Lt. Dhillon who was expected to arrive in Bombay, with the result that those who had come to see him were rather disappointed.

Addressing the meeting Mr. Bhulabhai D. Desai severely condemned the Police action in firing upon a peaceful procession. Such action, said Mr. Desai, was absolutely unnecessary, and only strengthened the will of the people to fight for their freedom.

Mr. Jaswant Singh, the Secretary of the Netaji Birthday Celebrations Committee said Subhas had fought for communal unity, and that should be their slogan.

Mr. Pralhad Mehta observed that Subhas's message was the message of India's Independence and it was their duty to organise themselves and continue his work.

TWO DAYS FOR DEBATE ON FOOD POSITION

NEW DELHI, Jan. 23 (A.P.I.)—The Government have agreed to allot two days, Wednesday and Friday next week, for a debate on the food situation.

Ex-Premier Saadulla Elected

GAUHATI, Jan. 23 (A.P.I.)—Sir Muhammad Saadulla (Muslim League) and Mr. Abdul Hal (Muslim League) were declared elected today to the Assam Legislative Assembly from the South Kamrup Muslim and North Kamrup Muslim Constituencies respectively.

the attack. Buckets of water were passed round and the processionists dipped their handkerchieves in water and wrapped them round their eyes. The Police then flung the tear-gas tubes. But still the processionists would not budge.

As tear-gas tubes were being hurled at the processionists, the Police poured water from the balconies and threw wet pieces of cloth.

LATHI CHARGE

As more people came to the locality to watch the happenings, Police resorted to lathi charges against the processionists and tried to disperse them. As a result of lathi charges, they dispersed, while the girls who were spared the lathi sticks on More tear-gas was used against the girls some of whom were injured.

Then a procession consisting of BEST drivers and conductors, in their uniform, came to the spot. They tried to squeeze their way through the cordon.

This was at about 11 o'clock. The Police then made a lathi charge and chased the processionists to the other end of the Sandhurst Road, near Opera House.

POLICE OPEN FIRE

Then brick-bats, shoes, soda-water bottles, buckets and other missiles were thrown on the Police. The Police resorted to a lathi charge and fired tear-gas tubes on the crowd near Dwarka Mansion, a big building abutting on the junction of Sandhurst Road and Vithalbai Patel Road. The Police were posted on the Sandhurst Road side and the tear-gas tubes fired emitting spiral of smoke, the fumes were carried by the wind back to the Police. The Police, then, changed their post and took a position along the side of Vithalbai Patel Road.

At this time more missiles were hurled at the Police, some of them being empty tear-gas tubes. Immediately confusion broke out and Deputy Commissioner Wilkins was hit on the forehead by a soda-water bottle. Then, the Police opened a few rounds of fire.

The crowds became thinner and the situation became quiet.

The total number of injured in the locality in the course of the four hours were 10 by tear-gas, 13 by lathi charges and three, as a result of Police firing.

ABID ALI ARRESTED

Five persons were arrested by the Police. Among them were Mr. Abid Ali Jafferibhai and Mr. G. G. Mehta, President of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Celebration Committee. Both of them were injured and taken to hospital and Mr. Abid Ali was subsequently taken to the lock-up.

At about 2 p.m. the Police shifted towards the junction of Sandhurst Road and Charni Road. Here a large crowd collected and stopped vehicles passing along Sandhurst Road towards Colaba. The crowd was in playful mood and the Police slowly watched. Whenever a motorist insisted on going along the Road Golpitha, the car was allowed to go by the crowd after some jeering and booing.

As the crowd at the junction of Sandhurst Road and Charni Road was engaged in such activity, trouble broke out at 2-30 p.m. at Round Temple and Golpitha.

The trouble started when a procession of about 3,000 people was in sight. The procession was heading towards Bhendy Bazaar. The police tried to prevent the procession. Then brick-bats rained on the Police in the locality. Within an hour Sandhurst Road between Golpitha and Round Temple was full of brick-bats and stones. Two military lorries, one at the junction of Duncan Road and Sandhurst Road at Round Temple and the other at the junction of Falkland Road and Carpenter Street were burnt to cinders.

THEY PRESS ON

Before these developments took place, the Police force was pressed along by the crowds up to the very rim of Bhendy Bazaar. Then armed Police reinforcements were requisitioned. The Police pressed back the crowd. In the process of being pressed back, seven persons were injured.

REPEATED FIRING

Near the Round Temple the crowd was cleared as the Police resorted to repeated firing. A number of people, however, collected in the lanes adjacent to the main road.

At the junction itself there was a large armed Police force and a number of officers. Superintendent Khan Bahadur Sheikh Hussain was the first to arrive. Later on, Dy. Commissioner, C.A. Dy. Commissioner Godfrey and Dy. Commissioner Lyons joined him. People collected in Northbrook Street, Kumbha Nav Street and Bhancart Street and were throwing brick-bats. At about 4-30 p.m. the lanes on the other side of the road, though filled with watching crowds, were quiet.

TRAFFIC PARALYSED

Traffic was completely paralysed. There were three trams, two of them double-decked, filled to capacity. Opposite them stood the arrayed force of Police. But the trams would not move and the passengers were asked to get down. Then some of the persons in the large crowd took a lead and asked the people to get back.

In the meantime, the Police were trying to clear the lanes towards Falkland Road. In the course of the trouble two Police officers and six constables were injured. Khan Bahadur Sheikh Hussain received an injury on his arm.

Many injured persons, about fifty of them with bullet wounds, were taken to different hospitals. While firing was going on at Duncan Road, Parashu Ram, standing on the third floor of Lokhandwala Building received a bullet, while brick-bats were falling. In the same building,

INDEPENDENCE

Br. Delegation Member

Lays A Bet

"Last week at the Editors' reception to the Parliamentary Delegation, Major Wyatt laid a bet with me that he would pay me Rs. 100 if Indian Independence was not achieved during this year of 1946," stated Mr. Joachim Alva in his speech presiding over the annual social gathering and distribution of prizes at the M. T. U. College, Surat on Tuesday evening. Principal N. M. Shah presided. There was a very large gathering. A variety of entertainment was also put up during the evening.

In the course of his speech Mr. Joachim Alva held up the model of the Taj as a plan for the mental make-up of the student community. The Taj Mahal was built up stone by stone, step by step and hence achieved perfection at the end. The place of architecture. Likewise our students had to build up stone by stone and thus create the India of to-morrow. These great stones were stones of freedom and unity for all the people inhabiting this land. The students would not shirk their responsibilities but had ever to be ready to make any sacrifice at the time of national crisis.

Mr. Alva, referring to the Parliamentary Delegation, stated that Major Wyatt made some shrewd observations about India and visualised the state of Britain immediately transferring power into the hands of Indians. He carried such a deliberately favourable impression that he promised to remit the money from the House of Commons if the bet was not realised. The speaker stated that it was easier for the Parliamentarians to lay bets and lose them, than to lose their Empire.

Several prizes were awarded to the students for various items won by them. Principal N. M. Shah of the M. T. U. College welcomed the guest.

Professor Desai proposed a hearty vote of thanks.

left ear was badly bruised by a stone was brought in just before eleven. He was also injured on the arm.

Another casualty with a deep gash on the head was also brought in just then. These were a sequel to the trouble that broke out at Khetwadi.

SEVERE LATHI CHARGE

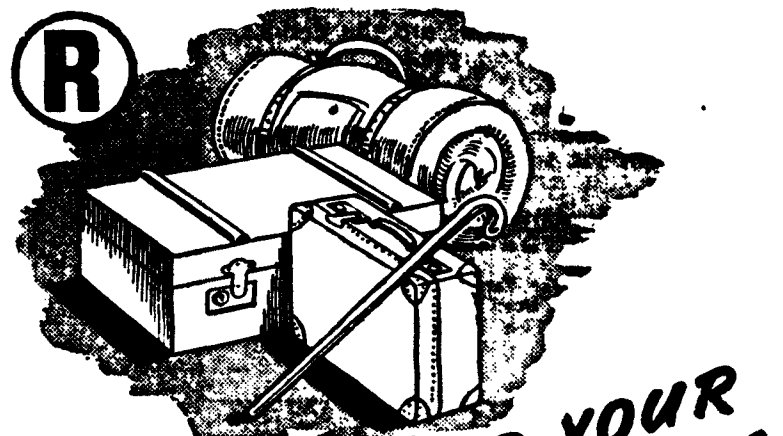

Trouble broke out here at 9-30 p.m. when some members of a crowd returning from the mammoth meeting at Chowpatty became unruly and entered the premises of the press of the Communist Party at 8th Khetwadi Lane. This mob pulled out some pieces of furniture from the place and made a bonfire of it. Some papers lying about were also set fire to, and an attempt was made to set fire to the press which was thwarted by the prompt arrival of the Fire Brigade.

The police soon arrived on the scene and made a severe lathi charge and dispersed the crowd. Five shops including one Government grain shop were looted in the vicinity of Round Temple.

Several arrests were made by the police as a result of the disturbances out of which nearly 18 were near Prarthana Samaj and about 50 at Round Temple.

Two more persons died by midnight.

Out of those who sustained bullet wounds 14 are said to be in a serious condition in the Harkisondas Hospital and 65 in the J. J. Hospital.

PERHAPS you are going out for a couple of days. But who knows your stay may be prolonged for over a week. If you leave your ration card behind and it is used during your absence for obtaining any rationed article, it will be an offence. You may forget to give information of your absence for over a week to the Rationing Officer, which also is an offence, unless you hand in your ration card instead.

Why take these risks? Hand in your ration cards at the Rationing Kiosk or at the Rationing Office when you leave and collect them again on your return.

It is much the safer way for you and it helps the authorities to detect malpractices at the Ration shops.

RENEWAL OF YARN LICENCES

The yarn licences granted under Government Order No. 24(3) dated the 31st July, 1942, and the validity of which was extended by Finance Department (Supply) Orders No. 24(3)/VII dated the 27th April 1945 and 30th October 1945 up to 31st December 1945 will be renewed, on application, for a further period of one year up to 31st December 1946.

Licencees who wish to have their licences renewed should apply and forward their licences to the Provincial Textile Controller, Kalachowkie, Pare Road, Bombay, IMMEDIATELY and in no case later than January 1946.

The renewal fee of Rs. 8 should be paid in advance in cash at the Office of the Provincial Textile Controller in the case of Bombay City licencees and by cheques in the case of mofussil licencees.

No Half-Way House To Freedom

(Continued from page 1) laughter from the audience. Describing how Subhas Babu came from Berlin to Singapore he quoted the well-known line 'Britannia Rules the Waves' and remarked that Subhas Babu perhaps came from under the waves. Referring to the British plea that they were prepared to hand over power and that only differences between the various communities stood in the way, he said that as far as East Asia was concerned it had been proved that as soon as the British rolled up their bedding and quit, they carried away all communal differences in their bed rolls. He also scored when he said that the British citizens of Bombay would prove themselves heroes not only in facing bullets and tear-gas, but in paying money to the I.N.A. fund.

Mr. Dhillon was loaded with garlands and bouquets. Some of them were shared by Mrs. Dhillon also. Among the numerous persons who kept on coming and garlanding him were two of his members, the Indian Army and Navy who also gave him money.

POLICE VIOLENCE. At the outset, Mr. Nagindas T. Master, President of the B.P.C.C., said that it was regrettable that the police should have resorted to firing and lathi charges. It seemed to him that the police came determined to indulge in their usual methods of violence without any necessity or provocation. Mr. Bhulabhai Desai said that there was nothing unusual in celebrating a leader's birthday, in holding meetings or in taking out processions. But it was a matter of great sorrow that the police should have thought fit to obstruct them. The day's events were a sharp reminder of their slavery, for such things could not happen in a free country. He narrated how after the meeting at Madhav Baug he was driving home. Two men who had obviously nothing to do with the procession or disturbances climbed on his footboard. Suddenly a policeman rushed forward and assaulted one of the men who began to bleed. It was a matter of great sorrow and shame that policeman should be engaged a-public expense and provided with lathi to beat members of the public.

ADVICE TO PEOPLE All the same he appealed to the audience to maintain complete peace and not be lured into making any demonstrations which would provide an excuse to the police to use violence. In particular he appealed to them keep up the peaceful atmosphere of an auspicious occasion by quietly dispersing and going straight to their homes at the end of the meeting and not to go out in processions or make any other demonstrations.

Reverting to the day's incident, Mr. Desai said that while members of the British Parliamentary Delegation were going about the country telling everybody that freedom lay on the road and only awaited picking up by Indians, quite a different picture was being presented in Bombay.

The plea of communal differences was being trotted out for a long time. It was the ancient story of the monkey and the cat. But the Azad Hind flag had exploded the story once for all. It had showed that when it came to a question of fighting for freedom there were no differences among Indians, to whatever community they might belong. The three men who had stood their trial belonged to three different communities and no community could object to the celebration of the birthday of the leader of these men. The police action was merely one more attempt to show some how or other that Hindus and Muslims were not united. Such a plea could not be accepted and they must assert their right to move through any street they liked. They wanted to achieve freedom. Gandhiji had taught them that they must achieve freedom through non-violent means. They were resolved to stick to non-violence. But if that were not possible, it would be far better to kill and be killed than that they should continue to suffer as slaves.

SUBHAS BOSE Turning to Subhas Chandra Bose, Mr. Desai recalled how 13 years ago he and Subhas had addressed a meeting at Geneva convened to support Indian freedom. The late Mr. Vithalbhai Patel was also present on the occasion. On that occasion Subhas had said that there could be no half-way house to freedom. The only possible end of India's struggle was full democratic freedom. Mr. Desai traced his career in India and what was known of his career abroad and said that was the spirit which inspired Netaji throughout. He narrated the story of the I.N.A. and said that Subhas Babu was not like some of those leaders who did everything with a view to build up their own leadership. He staked everything he had only for the sake of the freedom of India. Mr. Desai also complimented the men who constituted the I.N.A. under the inspiration of Subhas Babu. He recalled how when he met the I.N.A. prisoners with a view to defending them, they made it clear to him that it was not a matter of life with them but of the honour of the I.N.A. The story of the I.N.A. proved one thing, namely, that even in these dire and momentous choices, India's youth would rise to fight for freedom.

"NETAJI" IS IMMORTAL Speaking amidst thunderous cheers, Lt. Dhillon defended the idea of celebrating Subhas Babu's birthday. Whenever any of his soldiers died Netaji used to say that they had fulfilled his purpose; and, therefore, it was a matter of congratulation. In the same way, if Netaji had reached final martyrdom on the road to freedom, it was no matter of sorrow. If he were alive, it was a matter of till greater happiness. In any case Netaji was immortal. He could not die. His spirit would live for ever.

Lt. Dhillon gave a moving account of various phases of the I.N.A. the difficulties they had to undergo, the spirit that inspired them to heroic sacrifice. He described how without adequate arms with no proper equipment, with meagre rations and under the most difficult conditions they had given a good account of themselves. They had a difficult choice before them after the surrender of Singapore. The choice was to fight for the safety as well as the honour of their men and women in East Asia or to think of their accumulating salary and the material prospects of their wives and children at home. As for the Japanese, they thought it better to go with their arms and fight the Japanese to the last. The worst happened then to work as unarmoured slaves for them.

COMRADES-IN-ARM He stated that under the inspiration of Netaji they all worked as Comrades-in-Arm, as sons of one motherland and not members of various communities. He severely criticised the habit of bringing God and religion into politics and that if there was a thing which all religions taught it was that all men were equal. Not only were members of all communities equal, but all Indians were the equals of the British.

He also asserted that as far as the I.N.A. was concerned the members of the force would continue to fight the British; but only with different means. They were resolved to continue with the non-violent means. One of the non-violent weapons, at the disposal of the people, he pointed out, was the vote and he appealed to all of them to be alert and cast their votes for freedom.

At the conclusion of the meeting a portrait of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose was garlanded by various institutions of the city headed by the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee.

SUBHAS DAY IN AHMEDABAD

(From Our Correspondent) AHMEDABAD, Jan. 23. The city observed a partial holiday in honour of Netaji Subhas Babu's birthday. All the principal markets remained closed. Several Muslim shopkeepers also joined in the 'hartal'. Several schools and colleges remained closed as the students came out of them. Prabhat Pharies were taken out in different wards with the slogans of Jay Hind. Nearly dozen meetings were held in different localities in the evening.

Shah Nawaz Takes Pledge In Subhas' Study

Birthday Observance In Calcutta: Two-Minutes Silence For The Fallen Members Of I. N. A.

CALCUTTA, Jan. 23 (A.P.I.): Mr. Subhas Chandra Bose's study and before a portrait of Mr. Bose Major-General Shah Nawaz of the Indian National Army today reaffirmed the pledge he had taken before Mr. Bose in October, 1943, in Singapore.

Later, he unveiled another portrait of Mr. Bose and hoisted the Congress flag at Mr. Bose's house. A large gathering was present on the occasion.

THE PLEDGE In reaffirming the pledge, Major-General Shah Nawaz said: "On this blessed day, the day of your birth, I reaffirm the pledge that I took before you at Singapore in October 1943 on the occasion of the formation of the Provisional Government of Azad Hind."

I, Major-General Shah Nawaz Khan, do hereby reaffirm my solemn pledge that I will always remain a true and faithful soldier of your Netaji, and that for the complete liberation of 40 crores of my countrymen, I will sacrifice my all, and will continue the struggle launched under Netaji's leadership till the last drop of my blood is shed for the complete freedom of India. Netaji give me your blessings.

The anthem of the I.N.A. was sung on the occasion. Unveiling the portrait and hoisting the flag, Major-General Shah Nawaz saluted both and himself. He then said: "Netaji-Ki-Jai."

TWO-MINUTES SILENCE At his request a two-minute silence was observed in memory of Mr. Subhas Chandra Bose and members of the Azad Hind Foul who had fallen in the battlefield, and the victims of the Calcutta firing in November last.

He did not know whether Netaji was living or not, said General Shah Nawaz, addressing the crowd that gathered outside Mr. Bose's residence. He had been informed by Col. Habibur Rahman who was accompanying Mr. Bose in the plane which made the fateful crash, that Netaji was dead. This was very bad news, and he was reluctant to believe it as he thought that God could not do them so great an injustice. They had thought that Netaji would live to see India independent and free.

WHY I.N.A. RETREATED To-day Netaji's 'Jai Hind' slogan, was heard all over the country, though they might have been defeated on the battlefield they had achieved a glorious victory for Netaji on the soil of India. The I.N.A. was no doubt, defeated, but he would like everyone to know that it was not before the British army that they had to retreat. They had to retreat because their ammunition and rations ran short and because disease overpowered them. It was their preparedness to lay down their lives for the freedom of the country that gave them power before which the strength of British army was useless.

INDIAN BLOOD FIRST General Shah Nawaz said that the Japanese once demanded that their army should move in front and that the I.N.A. should follow them. But Mr. Bose insisted, and won his point, that if any blood was to be split for the independence of India, it must be Indian blood first, and the I.N.A. must lead the attack.

Soldiers of the I.N.A. under the leadership of General Shah Nawaz reached Kohima first and there planted their flag. The last message of Mr. Bose, which ran: "I have reached the last days of my life. Till my countrymen that upto the last moment of my life I went on fighting for the freedom of India." As members of the I.N.A. they should fulfil the task begun by their Netaji. They would follow the leadership of the force in India and take the path they advised them to take. He believed that their victory this time was sure, as they were alone now but amidst millions of their countrymen.

CALCUTTA PROCESSION

CALCUTTA, Jan. 23 (A.P.I.): The procession of I.N.A. Relief Volunteers organised as the high light of the Subhas Bose birthday celebrations started from Deshpriya Park, South Calcutta, at this afternoon.

Major-General Shah Nawaz participated in it, as well as some 3,000 I.N.A. Relief volunteers. All were dressed in white. The procession passed through Rashbehari Avenue, Russa Road and Ashutosh Mukherjee Road. It terminates at Deshpriya Park, North Calcutta, where a flag-hoisting ceremony was held.

The procession which was over a mile and a half long, was one of the biggest and most impressive so far taken out in Calcutta. The 3,000 volunteers were joined by another 2,000 just before it started. They included 200 girls dressed in white and blue with Gandhi caps to which were pinned I.N.A. badges. About 50,000 people from among the sightseers, followed the procession. The entire seven-mile route was lined by thousands of men and women.

Conchshells were blown by women from the balconies and terraces of buildings as well as from the roadside as the procession went past. They also showered marigold flowers on the volunteers.

HUGE PORTRAIT IN CHARIOT. A portrait of Mr. Bose, sixteen feet by twelve, in his uniform as Commander-in-Chief of the Indian National Army was drawn on a four-wheeled platform by 16 members of the I.N.A. besides the portrait, in a well-decorated car stood Maj. Gen. Shah Nawaz of the I.N.A., accompanied by Mr. Amiyannath Bose, Secretary of the I.N.A. Relief Committee, Bengal, Mr. Arabindo Bose and other members of Mr. Subhas Chandra Bose's family. Gen. Shah Nawaz, who was profusely garlanded and enthusiastically cheered, waved his hands acknowledging the greetings of the vast crowds that assembled on both sides of the road.

A well-decorated lorry followed, carrying a bust-size portrait of Mr. Bose and replica of the I.N.A. war motto of I.N.A. "Unity, Faith and Sacrifice."

Portraits of prominent Indian leaders were carried in another car, followed by a batch of I.N.A. men.

CYCLISTS AND RIDERS. About 500 cyclists carrying Congress flags and small size portraits of Mr. Subhas Bose formed the vanguard of the procession. Fifty Punjab volunteers on horseback came next, followed by a band of 100 Khaksars in their distinctive head-dress. About 300 students of local colleges, groups of I.N.A. Volunteer Corps, over 400 members of the Azad Muslim Young-men's Union and school boys also constituted part of the procession. The rear was brought up by half-a-dozen lorries with hundreds of posters bearing different I.N.A. slogans.

TRAFFIC SUSPENDED. The entire traffic was suspended for a couple of hours on roads through which the procession passed. The first tramcar that came after the procession was a moving picture of human heads, as every point in it was occupied by a crowd.

While the procession was passing through Chowringhee Road many Indian, British and United States Army personnel watched it from balconies, and many snaps of the procession were taken. The first three and a half miles of the route was covered in three hours.

WOMEN'S PROCESSION. NAGPUR, Jan. 23. (A.P.I.): The women's procession was taken out despite an order under Sec. 144 Criminal Procedure Code prohibiting processions and meetings, which continues to be in force in the city. The locality wherefrom the women procession started on their journey is about two miles from Government House. The women were also keen on urging that steps should be taken to mitigate their hardships occasioned in consequence of the recent dis-

Since we set sail - in 1871

IN the year 1871, at a time when life insurance was practically unknown in India, the Bombay Mutual wrote its first policy. Since then it has been safeguarding its policyholders' interests. Today Bombay Mutual can rightly feel proud of a splendid record of most dependable service.

Bombay Mutual has stood the test of time; it has been since its birth the fiercest of wars, the most ravaging of epidemics and economic depressions of long durations. But thanks to the utmost care, financial conservatism and progressive outlook of its management every time and every year its business and its assets have shown consistent increase.

Its assets exceed	Rs. 4,48,00,000
Its Life Fund exceeds	Rs. 4,12,00,000
Its business in force exceeds	Rs. 20,47,00,000

It will cost you nothing to learn what Bombay Mutual has done for its thousands of policyholders and what it will do for you. Write to us today for details.
